

CPR – Resuscitation Skills in General Practice

Practical, hands-on CPR training for general practice teams

Date:	Thursday, 11 June 2026
Time:	6.30 pm – 9.00 pm
Venue:	The Council Room Industry Development Centre University of Newcastle, Callaghan

Course overview

A hands-on CPR course designed to build confidence in managing emergency situations in general practice.

Course highlights

- 2.5-hour practical CPR training session
- Mandatory training for GPs
- Designed for the whole practice team
- Uses clinically relevant equipment and scenarios

Learning outcomes

- Respond confidently to cardiac arrest in general practice
- Identify when and how to escalate emergency support
- Deliver effective CPR and AED use
- Support team response during emergencies

Course fees

HPMI members - $77

Non-members - $150

Register online now

or complete the form below

CPR – Resuscitation Skills in General Practice

11 June 2026

Registration Form

Full name:

Profession:

Email Address:

(This is where your confirmation will be sent)

Mobile:

(Used for reminder text)

Payment

HPMI member – \$77

Non-member – \$150

Return completed form to: Angela.Place@newcastle.edu.au

Alternatively, register online via the link on page 1